

Directions:

1. Form a group of 3-4 people
2. In your group, discuss the factors that make a good home.
3. Imagine that you are the first settlers to a new land. What factors would be important in choosing a place to settle?
4. Examine the map above. Select a location that is likely to have all of the factors you listed.
5. On a separate sheet of paper, trace the shape of Guam, place your settlement, and write a paragraph explaining why your group would choose to settle in that place.
